ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Children, Our Future...Diversity, Our Strength

Saturday, February 25, 2012 8:00am-5:00pm

Merritt College, 12500 Campus Drive, Oakland

Calling administrators, classroom teachers, family child care providers, students, and early childhood professional in related positions. Are you in need of affirmation for the work you do every day with children? Are you looking for professional development that is relevant, energizing, and fun? Join us for the EBAEYC Early Childhood Conference.

Conference highlights:

Keynote Speaker Eileen Healy talking about the importance of emotional intelligence, how it influences a child's life, and the impact it has on parent and provider roles.

Workshops on topics such as curriculum, stressors in our lives, challenging behavior, health and safety, infants/toddlers, and leadership. If requested, a few sessions may be available in Spanish and Chinese.

EBAEYC Members' Meeting where you can learn about joining our active, local affiliate of the National Association for the Education of Young Children. Enter a raffle to win a free membership!

Fee and Registration Required - Reduced Rate for AEYC Members
